You can help

During these tough economic times, donations have decreased for many ministries. Please remember the ministry of the NACC in your prayers. We will continue inspiring and encouraging ministry leaders through the NACC. If you are able to give, please support us. If you are able to speak to your church's missions committee, please advocate for us. If you are able to ask a friend to register and attend the Indianapolis NACC, please extend our invitation. We are happy to send you information about our ministry and events. Please contact the NACC for brochures and other promotional material.

Thank You, Sponsors!
